

22 July 2002

Annex 3

Chairperson's Statement On Mission Planning Over Congested Areas

While reaffirming the right of the observing Party to observe any point on the territory of the observed Party as set forth in the Treaty on Open Skies, and in an attempt to minimize risks during the conduct of observation flights, States Parties will take note of congested areas during mission planning.